COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS
 Council held a regular meeting on October 11th.

The Town is proposing to designate Municipal Reserve property south of Elevator Road as Industrial land instead and designate the property that has the old ball diamonds and campgrounds as new Municipal Reserve property in its place. The administrator has been instructed to start preparing the necessary documentation.

The Town nominated Fay Coben to receive the Queen's Platinum Jubilee Medal.
 The Town also hired Torrin Schumacher as an outside employee.

At the November 8th Council meeting, a review will be done to determine which outstanding water and sewer accounts should be added to property taxes. Please ensure your water and sewer account is up to date and current to avoid being included on this list.
